

Halloween Party

Did you get to go to a Halloween party last year? Well I did. Last year my class had a halloween party and it was a blast of fun, at school. Can you believe it?

We played some made games like "Toss The Pumpkin". Our class got extra recess too. Everyone had funny and scary costumes, ones like clowns, Harry Potter, goblins, jackolantrons, and more. I was a witch.

People brought in tasty treats. We had cookies, candy, and blood red punch. My class also made some crafts.

Different people freaked me out by suprisedly saying, "Boo!" But don't worry I got them back, "He He He."

The Halloween party was only about three hours, but so what it was still fun.

My birthday is on Halloween and so was a boy in my class's. So we had double cupcakes. At the end of the day I felt queasy, but in a good way. At our class party some candy we put tissues over, drew faces on them, and they were ghosts. I snuck in the line twice and made two. I came home with more stuff than I went to school with. Including a filled stomach. I had an extraordinary class Halloween Party.

I was just a normal person until it happened, I don't know why it did, but it has changed my life forever.

I was just walking in the door of my classroom when Alex said to me, "hi Blaire", Blaire is the girl who sits next to me, of course it was Halloween and me and Blaire were going to be identical twins. I tried to tell Alex my name is Kara, but nothing came out except a small grunt. Then a strange thing happened, I had the urge to sit at Blaire's desk, so I sat down there, at Blaire's desk, instead of my own and found that I now recognized her stuff as my own. I was glad to figure out the real Blaire had bronchitis, which meant that she would be absent for about two weeks, that was good.

After school I didn't know what to do. I couldn't go home with Blaire's family and my mom would wonder why Blaire was at our house and Kara wasn't. I decided to call Blaire from the office. When her mom answered I got worried, so I said in a disguised voice, "Is Blaire there please?" When Blaire answered she coughed a little and asked "who is this?" I quickly told her the whole story, when I was done she thought and coughed for a while and finally said, I don't know what to do but I have an idea, even though it probably won't work. She quickly she told me her plan. I decided to sleep under the stars that night, and hope it didn't rain, that would of been bad.

The next morning I woke up shivering. It was Saturday and Blaire was going to meet me behind the seventh grade classroom, but when I remembered I was Blaire and looked down at myself, yes! I was Kara. What could of happened? I wondered, at least I was me. When Blaire finally came she saw me and I thanked her for taking the time to think up a plan, then I ran home and told my parents the whole story.

I still don't have any ideas why it happened, do you?

We were off on our way to Crater Lake to explore dangerously to have fun. First we went to look out. Second we went to the map of Crater Lake. On the way to Crater Lake we had to stay on the bus for 30 min. It was very very boring on the bus half of people sleep on the way back I wish I had my camera that day it was very beautiful. We had to stay with an adult and a partner.

If I was a different person
I will be rich and popular I would go on a croz with Kyle
and JC and Jeffery to Disne world.
Then all of ous will go to disne world and go have fun riding horse
on a trail go on a bot go swim
ing and going back home. Oh it was just a Jem. Then we go by are horse's. Then we will ride them on a trail.
Then it was time over it was time for school then I went to the comes to have more fun.
